The purpose of this Policy is to define the Personal Leave and Sick Leave Program recognized by Mercer University.

PERSONAL (VACATION) LEAVE

I. Eligibility for Personal Leave
To be eligible for Personal Leave an employee must be Regular Full-time Non-Exempt Classified Staff, Regular Part-time Non-Exempt Classified Staff (Category I), Regular Full-time Exempt Administrative Staff, Regular Full-time Exempt Professional Staff, or 12-Month Faculty. Employees of MERC should refer to their Employee Handbook for official leave policies. Definitions of Employment may be found on Human Resources Website – Non-Faculty Handbook.

II. Accrual of Personal Leave
All employees eligible for Personal Leave begin accruing such leave as of their date of employment or eligibility as follows:

A. Regular Full-time Staff Non-Exempt Classified Staff and Regular Part-time Non-Exempt Classified Staff (Category I) in all areas of the University:

   0 thru 3 years of employment 10 days
   4 thru 6 years of employment 12 days
   7 thru 9 years of employment 15 days
   Over 10 years of employment 18 days

   Regular Part-time Non-Exempt Classified Staff (Category I) accrue Personal Leave at a ratio equivalent to their percentage of time worked.

B. Regular Full-time Exempt Professional/Administrative Staff in all areas of the University:

   0 thru 3 years of employment 12 days
   4 thru 6 years of employment 15 days
   7 thru 9 years of employment 18 days
   Over 10 years of employment 22 days

C. 12-Month Faculty receive 22 working days of personal leave each Fiscal Year. Up to a maximum of 11 days may be “carried over” for use in the next year (whenever the 12-month contract remains in place for that year)
III. Use of Personal Leave
A. Personal Leave is provided to afford an employee the opportunity for rest, recreation, and personal activities, and as such, Personal Leave may be taken for any reason, or without a reason provided, subject to the scheduling approval of the employee’s supervisor.

B. Personal Leave will be used to subsidize Sick Leave or Bereavement Leave upon exhaustion of accrued Sick Leave. See also Policies & Procedures entitled “Sick Leave Policy”, “FMLA”, “Worker’s Compensation” and “Bereavement Leave Policy”.

C. In no instance will an employee separating from the university be paid for personal leave accrual exceeding two weeks (ten days) beyond their last day of active employment.

IV. Maximum Accrual
A. The maximum amount of Personal Leave that may be accumulated by all eligible* Regular Full-time Non-Exempt Classified Staff and Regular Part-time Non-Exempt Classified Staff (Category I) and Regular Exempt Professional/Administrative Staff is the amount accrued in a one-year period. Days accrued in excess of the one-year maximum and existing as of June 30th are removed from the Payroll system during July each year. No payments are made in lieu of taking leave, except for accrued unused personal leave existing at the time of termination. However, such terminal leave for eligible* staff may not exceed two-weeks (ten days) beyond the last day of active employment.

*continuous month-to-month time tracking (nonexempt by time report/exempt via "BearTime" system) is required for accrual rollover eligibility and/or payout of any accrual at termination.

V. Administration
A. New hires are immediately eligible to use any accrued Personal Leave.

B. Employees who accrue leave by the month must be in a pay status for a minimum of 11 days each month in order to receive a Personal Leave Accrual for that month.

C. Personal leave should be scheduled and approved by the employee’s supervisor before it is taken.

D. If a Non-Exempt Classified Staff Employee or Exempt Professional/Administrative Employee transfers into a 12 Month Faculty position, such individual may carry over up to 11 days into the new Faculty appointment position, if the employee has 11 or more days accrued vacation at the time of transfer. Existing accrued vacation in excess of 11 days may not be transferred into the new Faculty appointment. During the first year of the new Faculty appointment, the employee will receive a pro-ration of the 22 day leave provision based upon the number of months the employee occupies the Faculty appointment.

E. Employees who terminate in good standing may be paid for unused accrued leave (up to a maximum of 10 days) at the time of termination.
F. Personal Leave existing at the time of termination that exceeds ten days will not be paid out at termination.

G. 12 month Faculty Members who accrue 22 days as (not located at MERC) are not paid for any leave beyond 10 days upon separation from the University. Neither does any accrued vacation carry over to be used by one leaving a 12-month position entering into a non-accruing position (i.e. nine month contracts and staff positions at an FTE of less than .50)

H. For 12 Month Faculty Members the 22 days are pro-rated and the employee will receive pro-rated credit for the period of time completed in the current Fiscal Year. Any days taken during the current Fiscal Year will first be deducted from any carry-over days from the previous Fiscal Year, if any, and if no carry-over days are available or if more days were taken than carried over, the remaining days taken will be deducted from the pro-rated days. Upon termination, any days remaining of the pro-rated days will be paid out (not to exceed 10 days) beyond the last day of active employment.

SICK LEAVE:

I. Accrual of Sick Leave
   A. All Regular Full-time Non-Exempt Classified University and MERC Staff and Full-time Exempt Administrative and Professional Staff accrue Sick Leave at the rate of one working day per calendar month of service.
   B. All Regular Part-time Staff in Category I in all areas of the University accrue Sick Leave in a ratio equivalent to their percentage of time worked.
   C. Category II Part-time Staff and Temporary Staff in all areas of the University are not eligible for accruing paid Sick Leave.
   D. Regular Full-time Faculty do not accrue sick leave. However, in the event of a qualified FMLA absence, a period of paid sick leave will be given based on the following and will begin with the first day of absence:

   1-5 years of service: up to 8 weeks of paid leave
   6-10 years of service: up to 10 weeks of paid leave
   10+ years of service: up to 12 weeks of paid leave

   For details regarding Mercer’s FMLA policy for faculty, please refer to the Faculty Handbook’s Family Medical Leave Policy: Section 2.17.4b

II. Use of Sick Leave
    Paid Sick Leave may be granted for any of the following reasons, upon approval of the employee’s Dean or Supervisor:

    A. Illness or injury of the employee, including work related events.
    B. Medical and Dental treatment and consultations of the employee or an immediate family member.
    C. Pregnancy or pregnancy-related medical conditions of the employee.
    D. Illness, injury or disability of a member of the employee’s immediate family requiring the employee’s presence to care for the family member.
E. Sick Leave may also be approved for Bereavement Purposes. Up to five days may be approved for immediate family members (spouse, child, or parent) and up to three for extended family members (siblings and grandparents).

III. Maximum Accrual
Employees accruing Sick Leave may carry over unused Sick Days from year to year up to a maximum of 120 days. Days accrued in excess of 120 days and existing as of June 30th are removed from the Payroll System during July each year.

IV. Administration
A. New Hires are immediately eligible to use any accrued Sick Leave.

B. An employee must be in a with pay status for a minimum of 11 days each month in order to receive a Sick Leave Accrual for that month.

C. An employee is not paid for accrued unused Sick Days at the time of termination.

D. If an illness/episode of the employee or immediate family member extends beyond the employee’s accrued Sick Leave, the employee is to use any accrued Vacation leave to remain in a pay status.

E. Upon exhaustion of both accrued Sick Leave and Vacation Leave the employee will be placed in a without pay status.

F. Accrued sick pay hours will be cut back on June 30 of each year to the maximum allowed amount of 120 days.

G. Employees who are eligible for re-hire after termination are considered in "good standing" and qualify for payout of accrued vacation up to a maximum of ten days.
